

The recording industry and broadcast decided to go for cheap (digital) instead of secure - analog. That is reproduction of analog signals is very expensive in time and equipment - reproduction of digital is quick and easy.

I see no reason to allow more intrusion into the equipment I use to decrease my current rights to record stuff off the air - right now I have a program I will watch Saturday because I have a set meeting on Wednesday.

John Trotter